SC gives WB a week to reply to plea for post-violence SIT

Cops Didn't Act While TMC Went On Rampage: PIL

Delhi Police, New Delhi: Anna Hazare’s nanban, former TMC leader Gourab Gosh, filed a PIL in the Delhi High Court recently, seeking a SIT probe into police inactivity during the TMC violent protest in West Bengal, which had gone on for two days earlier this week. The PIL says that the police did not act when the TMC workers were rampaging in the streets, which halted public life in the state. The PIL seeks an intervention from the High Court, which is hearing the PIL on March 31.
